DETAILED ACTION

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Group I,

Claim(s) 36-41, drawn to a compound of formula (I) not encompassed by Groups II thru XXIII.

Group II,

Claim(s) 42, drawn to compound of formula (II).

Group III,

Claim(s) 43, drawn to compound of formula (III).

Group V,

Claim(s) 44, drawn to a compound of formula (IV).

Group VI,

Claim(s) 45, drawn to compound of formula (VI).

Group VII,

Claim(s) 46, drawn to compound of formula (VIII).

Group VIII,

Claim(s) 47, drawn to a compound of formula (IX).

Group IX,

Claim(s) 48, drawn to a compound of formula (XI).

Group X,

Claim(s) 49, drawn to a compound of formula (XII).

Group XI,

Claim(s) 50 and 51, drawn to compound of formula (XXV).

Group XII,

Claim(s) 52, drawn to compound of formula (XXVI).

Group XIII,

Claim(s) 53, drawn to a compound of formula (XXX).

Group XIV,

Claim(s) 54 drawn to a compound of formula (XXVIII).

Group XV,

Claim(s) 55, drawn to a compound of formula (XXXII).

Group XVI,

Claim(s) 56, drawn to compound of formula (XXXIV).

Group XVII,

Claim(s) 57, drawn to a compound of formula (XXXV).

Group XVIII,

Claim(s) 58, drawn to a compound of formula (XXXVI).

Group XIX,

Claim(s) 59, drawn to a compound of formula (XXXIX).

Group XX,

Claim(s) 60, drawn to a compound of formula (XL).

Group XXI,

Claim(s) 61-64, drawn to method of using a compound of formula (I).

Group XXII,

Claim(s) 65, drawn to a process of preparing a compound of formula (I).

Group XXIII,

Claim(s) 66-70, drawn to a composition comprising the compounds of claim 67.

Compounds lack the same special technical feature and are distinct compounds having different structures and belonging to different groups. The Z and CKE groups correspond to a plethora of different genus's.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Z as disclosed in claim 40.

CKE as disclosed in claims 40.

G as disclosed in claim 40.

AD as disclosed in claim 39 (if elected)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

(a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;

- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Art Unit: 1616
